

WEEK 28 · JULY 2026

APAC DATA CENTRE WEEKLY

Malaysia's data center boom is now a GDP lifeline, while Singapore and Japan brace for identity-driven regulatory crackdowns after high-profile breaches.

APAC

01 Southeast Asia energy shift hinges on grids & links

DATA CENTER NEWS ASIA PACIFIC

SINGAPORE / SEA

Malaysia's data center sector is powering ahead with a second wave of investment, including a 210MW facility in Selangor and megacampuses in Springhill and Serendah, while Singapore and Vietnam face tightening identity controls and...

01 Data centers keep steady Malaysia's 2026 GDP: IMF

W.MEDIA

02 Malaysia enters second wave of data center boom: Analyst

W.MEDIA

03 Singapore warnings on identity gaps after breaches

DATACENTERNEWS ASIA PACIFIC

NORTH ASIA

South Korea's quantum and AI data center ambitions are surging, with QUDORA and QAI partnering on ion-trap quantum tech, NFD Korea planning a 300MW AI campus, and SK Telecom targeting a 15GW AI data center cluster. Japan's Mitsubishi...

01 QUDORA and QAI sign MoU to deploy ion-trap quantum computer in South Korea

W.MEDIA

02 Singapore warnings on identity gaps after breaches

DATACENTERNEWS ASIA PACIFIC

03 Vietnam Accelerates 4G, 5G Expansion Following 2G Retirement

TELECOM REVIEW ASIA

AUSTRALIA & PACIFIC

Anthropic's reported 1.4GW data center procurement in Australia signals a massive AI infrastructure push, while Australia-India's uranium deal hints at nuclear-powered data centers to meet soaring energy demands.

01 Anthropic reportedly seeks up to 1.4GW of Australian data centre capacity

W.MEDIA

02 Australia and India ink uranium deal to power nuclear innovation

CAPACITY

03 Australian data-centre king cracks Japan's pension market

AFR

INDIA

Gujarat's new data center policy aims to attract $62.9bn in investments, positioning the state as India's green AI hub. Meanwhile, Marubeni eyes machine tool growth amid India's chips and data center boom, and NTT Data's Mumbai facility...

01 Gujarat data center policy expected to attract investments worth US$ 62.9 billion

W.MEDIA

02 Marubeni gears up for machine tool growth in India as chips, data centers boom

NIKKEI ASIA

03 Australia and India ink uranium deal to power nuclear innovation

CAPACITY

GLOBAL

01 Data centers keep steady Malaysia's 2026 GDP: IMF

W.MEDIA

02 Malaysia enters second wave of data center boom: Analyst

W.MEDIA

03 Saemangeum Lands AUG East Cable Landing Station

SUBTEL FORUM

The APAC data center landscape is fragmenting into regional powerhouses—Malaysia and India for hyperscale growth, South Korea and Japan for AI leadership, and Australia for AI infrastructure—while regulators tighten controls on identity and energy.

OVER TO YOU

Which APAC market will emerge as the undisputed AI infrastructure leader by 2027: Malaysia's hyperscale expansion, South Korea's quantum leap, or Japan's $9bn data center spree?

Lee Heggan · leeheggan.tech